dans une galaxie où survivre est une gageure permanente ils ont fui la pauvreté pour devenir des pirates de l'espace Équipés de prothèses cybernétiques ils sont devenus les meilleurs parmi les meilleurs s'infiltrant dans les résidences des gouverneurs abordant les vaisseaux marchands qui convoient les plus folles richesses rien semble t il ne peut résister à leurs assauts mais ce dernier coup n'est-il pas trop gros pour eux trop dangereux en s'infiltrant dans ce palais souterrain dissimulé aux yeux de tous depuis plus de six siècles ils vont aller de surprises en surprises car rien ne les avait préparé à ce qu'ils vont y rencontrer réussiront-ils à s'échapper vivants de cette mission en emportant avec eux le butin le plus convoité de la galaxie the volume attempts to triangulate three vibrant discourses of our times it combines postcolonial and decolonial readings of cultural conflicts with assessments of ecological dimensions of those conflicts as well as their significance within discourses on natural and cultural world heritage the examples from four continents range from the medieval middle east already shaken by a convergence of ecological and social disaster to modern imaginary constructions of medieval vikings the persistence of indigenous knowledge in the arctic literary poetics of patrimony and the heritage politics of mediterranean urban architecture authors ask which strategies societies in developing countries use to defend their cultural and ecological uniqueness and integrity while being penetrated by environmental hazards and hegemonizing western forms of heritage culture or how western societies construct their own past in ways that are sometimes reminiscent of traditional imaginations of a pre modern past petrified eternally in an ideal moment of time colonial and historical forms of heritagization of human and non human environments the essays show answer to pressing emotional needs for a sense of stability but the desire for nostalgia frequently commodified tends to collide with the similarly pressing need for political and economic survival in a rapidly changing world and in the face of accelerating extraction practices without being able to solve this dilemma the volume makes an interdisciplinary contribution to taking intellectual stake of the asymmetrical politics and poetics of heritage and collective cultural memory this book investigates the millennial history of the indian subcontinent through the various methods adopted the objects and moments examined it questions various linguistic literary and artistic appropriations of the past to address the conflicting comprehensions of the present and also the figuring imagining of a possible future the volume engages with this general cultural condition in relation both to the subcontinent's current synchronic reality and to certain aspects of the culture's underlying diachronic determinations it also reveals how the multiple heritages are negotiated through the subcontinent's long term sedimentational history it scrutinizes both conservative interpretations of heritage and a possibly incremental enrichment and the additional possibility of a mode of appropriation open to a dialectic of creative destruction in which the patrimonial imperative is challenged leaving room for processes of renewal and rejuvenation the collection is organized around four major topics orientalism addressed by way of the tamil epic manimekalai through the evocation of the hastings circle and views on a possible hindu muslim unity sketched out by sayyid ahmed khan modernism in indian and burmese texts
